

Esha Bhardwaj

A nurturing soul with a heart full of creativity, I find true joy in shaping young minds through playful learning. As a Kathak dancer, artist, and natural caregiver, I bring the warmth of a mother, the spark of an artist, and the wonder of a child into every space. With experience in fine arts, cooking, and child-led activities, I create magical environments where children feel safe, curious, and free to be themselves. I believe the best kind of learning feels like play, and the best kind of teacher feels like home. I'd love to bring this spirit to Play Room and grow with your wonderful team.
